TRANSITIONAL SUBSIDIZED EMPLOYMENT (TSE) - PAID WORK EXPERIENCE (PWE)

Attention All Non-profit Businesses & Government Organizations in LA County

The Transitional Subsidized Employment (TSE) program provides entry-level subsidized employment opportunities for CalWORKs and other eligible participants. TSE helps people overcome barriers to employment with the goal of enabling them to secure unsubsidized employment after completion of a TSE assignment.

Training assignments pay minimum wage. Participants can work up to 40 hrs/week for a 8 month period.

South Bay WIB serves as Employer of Record and pays all wages, tax and workers compensation costs.

Workers are recruited and screened to meet your agency's needs!

- Live Scans & background checks performed upon request
- Assistance with hiring costs (i.e. uniforms and tools)
- Reduce or eliminate your job advertising costs
- Personalized service with a single point-of-contact for ongoing support
- Opportunity to help families in the community to become self sufficient

How to participate?

Call SBWIB GAIN Unit at (310) 970-7796 or email shooks@sbwib.org for more information on the TSE program.

Other important details:

All participating agencies must carry required General Liability insurance.

Work duties that require driving a vehicle are not allowed in the TSE PWE program.
